FAITH AND FINANCES CLASS

True financial freedom and peace is to recognize that God has a plan for our life - including our finances. St. Joseph's will be offering a class exploring what Christ and his Church say about handling money and what it means for us. The class is open to anyone who is interested in learning about their faith as it relates to finances and couples are encouraged to attend. Whether you are struggling to make ends meet or have questions about the future of your resources, this class can help you develop answers for your own personal situation. The course will cover:

- How to strengthen your marriage and family life, and how to teach children the ABCs of managing their resources wisely.
- The tools needed to create a budget and stick with it.
- The basics of saving and investing and what you need to know in order to plan for your children's future.
- How you can break free from the bondage of debt.
- Answer questions about owning and buying a home and becoming mortgage free.
- Learn how to manage risk through the appropriate use of insurance.
- Discover the importance of basic estate planning mechanisms for the well being of your family.

The course is designed to meet for 7 sessions and classes will be held Mondays at St. Joseph from 6:30-8:30 pm starting Jan. 11th. The cost of the class is $30 for a single and $47 for a couple. Scholarships are available for those in need. The class will be limited to 12 participants and sign ups will be taken through January 4th. For further information or to reserve your spot you may contact Whitney Driscoll at 642-1695 or Jon Pochop at 642-1885, 722-3939 or sign up in the church office.

DIOCESAN AND COMMUNITY INFORMATION

DIOCESAN PRO-LIFE COMMISSION

"The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents. The depth and richness of this tradition can be understood best through a direct reading of these documents. In these brief reflections, we highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition." The reflections can be found on the USCCB website at

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits — the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

NEW LIGHTHOUSE CD!

Catholic psychotherapist, Deacon Dr. Bob McDonald provides a spiritual and psychological prescription for overcoming the sinful anger that poisons the mind of Christ within, causing alienation and division. His practical wisdom shows that only by learning how to forgive can we hope to promote healing and understanding in our relationships and enjoy the blessings of a forgiving heart.

YEAR FOR PRIESTS

"With regard to the mystic body of Christ, that is, all the faithful, the priest has the power of the keys, or the power of delivering sinners from Hell, of making them worthy of Paradise, and of changing them from the slaves of Satan into the children of God."

—St. Alphonsus Liguori
