FROM THE DIOCESAN SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMISSION

The Catholic community enters public life not to impose sectarian doctrine but to act on our moral convictions, to share our experience in serving the poor and vulnerable, and to participate in the dialogue over our nation's future... The Word of God and the teachings of the Church give us a particular way of viewing the world. Scripture calls us to "choose life," to serve "the least of these," to "hunger and thirst" for justice, and to be peace-makers." Catholic teaching offers consistent moral principles to assess issues, political platforms, and campaigns for their impact on human life and dignity. ... Catholic teaching requires us to speak up for the voiceless and to act in accord with universal moral values.
